Reactor Watch named Official Timekeeper for the 2009 International Game Fish Association Offshore World Championship

February 07, 2009

Winner's Cup Team to receive commemorative Reactor sport performance watch with diamonds.

Southern California-based Reactor, maker of the world's most durable and progressive sport watches has been chosen as the official timing sponsor for the 2009 International Game Fish Association Offshore Championship (IGFA), to be held May 10-15, 2009, in Cabo San Lucas, Mexico, the "Marlin Capital of the World."

This is the first year that Reactor has participated in this unique event, which had been presented by Rolex since 2000. Reactor will be providing a set of four special commemorative Ion Diamond sport watches, valued at $5,000 each to the Winner's Cup Team members.
